

March 27, 1973

that is in the original bill. Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well I was trying to be a gentleman, I'm generally out of character, I just now want to make the 10 days 30 days.

PRESIDENT: Now the motion before us is to change the 10 to 30 days, is there need for discussion of that motion? Now Senator Frank Lewis. We are changing the 10 to 30 days.

SENATOR FRANK LEWIS: Mr. Chairman this is so messed up that probably the brightness of the morning will give us a little better look at it. I move we adjourn.

PRESIDENT: Senator Dickinson for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DICKINSON: To object to the adjournment motion, I think we ought to settle this issue tonight, we've discussed it for a long time and people know what they want to do, let's carry the thing through, please.

PRESIDENT: Alright, stand by just a minute please. Senator Carpenter we don't have the 10 before us, what you really are moving to amend is the 180 to 30 days, -

SENATOR CARPENTER: That's the simple route, yes.

PRESIDENT: Alright, that's in the bill, that's a separate amendment, now, do you all understand that amendment? Senator Carpenter with his motion is attempting to amend the 180 days to 30 days.

CLERK: This would read then amend the bill section to page 5, line 12, strike 180 and insert 30.

PRESIDENT: That's the issue before the body, now Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President I guess I missed the issue do we have a motion to adjourn or not? I don't understand how we can continue on discussing after Senator Lewis asked for a point of adjournment, now maybe I'm out of order and if I am I'm sorry.

PRESIDENT: Yes, and the Chair realizes that with this amendment, we can move this one more piece off of general file, perhaps and at least we can move that and we won't then abort all of the discussion on the bill, which is a little frustrating to the Chair sometime to accomodate everything up here, but I would like to try to accomodate those people who are trying to move the legislation because that's the name of the game.

SENATOR BARNETT: I'm sorry Mr. President to disagree with you, as a good friend and everything, but I still say that there is no discussion on a point of adjournment and I thin the Chair stands ruled to be correct.

PRESIDENT: Alright, there is a motion to adjourn, all those in favor of adjourning till 9:00 - alright we have reports to read in first.

CLERK: Reports read. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to be excused tomorrow at 10:30 and all day Thursday March 29th, signed Senator Snyder.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered.

CLERK: That's all Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Is there any other business to come before the body?
